

6516207057.txt

I have been a subscriber of XM Satellite radio for several years and love the features and stations that they offer me. I do not want any group to be able to limit the service that XM provides and can provide in the future. Let XM continue to develop a new technology that is very welcome by me and many others in our country.